CRIME DATA

During April of 2021, there were nine Part I Crimes; one attempted residential burglary, four thefts from a motor vehicle, one motor vehicle theft, and three property thefts.

During the burglary, unknown suspect(s) attempted to gain entry to the residence by smashing a rear side window. Suspect(s) were unsuccessful at gaining entry and fled the location.

Of the thefts from motor vehicles, two were from unlocked vehicles and two were from locked vehicles.

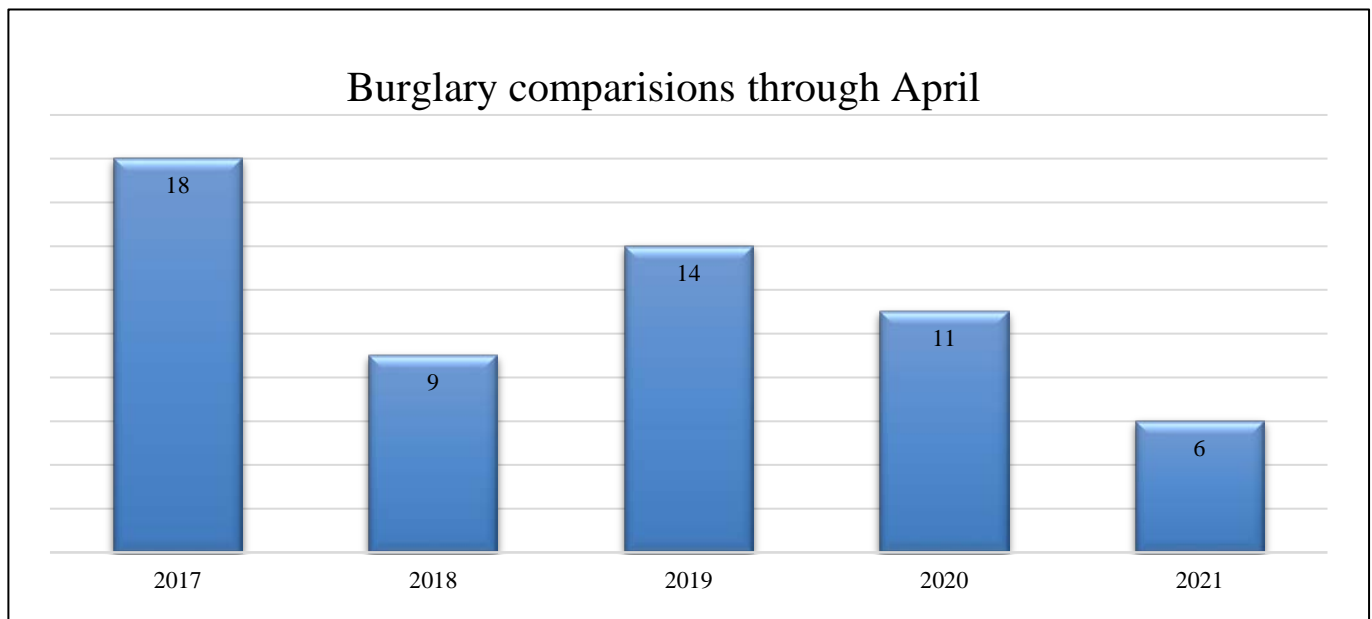

Of the larcenies, one residence was under construction with multiple sub-contractors working inside. An unknown suspect removed multiple items from the residence undetected and fled the area.

In the second larceny, the victim’s child left their bicycle outside the residence (driveway). The suspect in this case subsequently removed the bicycle and fled the area undetected.

In the last larceny, an unknown suspect cut off a catalytic converter from a parked vehicle and fled undetected.

The last Part One crime was a theft of a motor vehicle, in which officers located the vehicle parked on an adjacent street. Upon further investigation, it was determined the vehicle had been moved without the victim’s permission and items had been removed from the vehicle.
