

This chart is intended to show the comparison between the Fire Dept's initial estimate versus the final actual fee. The years with the bar above the zero means the final actual fees came in lower than our initial estimate, thus illustrating a surplus. The years with the bar below the zero means the final actual fees came in higher than our initial estimate, thus illustrating a deficit.